

Sample e-mail message from PacificSource regarding Agent iStore

Hello [your name],

The PacificSource Agent iStore Account Center now has a new address and has been upgraded with the latest technology for secure applications and account management. Through the Account Center, you can check the status of client applications, manage client information, and take advantage of tools to help you market your Agent iStore.

An account has been set up for you on our new Account Center site. All your current application and administrative information will be available through the new Account Center.

You will need to create a new password for your account. To do this, please visit the following secure Web address:
